Going to Study Center

On the 2nd day, we got up at 7:00 a.m. and had breakfast at 8:00 a.m. Then we packed our own stuff and met at the lobby of the hotel.

The study program in groups got started from here. Each group member rode on a different bus and left for each study center. It took about two hours to get there from the hotel.

First, two teacher guides, Janelle and Rosalie, explained to the students how they should do at the study center and at home.

Meeting Host Families

After the orientation by teacher guides, we had lunch there and walked around the neighborhood. The temperature was about 27 °C and it was very hot outside.

After the neighborhood tour, it was finally time to meet their host families. Each host family made a board on which the student's name was.

Host families took students to their home. It was the time to start experiencing the American family.

< From Students' Diary >

My heart was beating so fast because I went to a foreign country for the first time. Although the airplane took off late because of bad weather, I was glad to arrive in America safely. (Akina Ishibashi, Tsuruga SHS)

I came to America for the first time. The homestay program will start tomorrow. I'm very nervous, but I want to enjoy this program. (Takahiro Omichi, Takefu SHS)

Today, we arrived in San Diego. There are many buildings there. I thought San Diego is a very beautiful city. (Keina Kawashima, Katsuyama SHS)
