Various Kinds of Foods

The 7th day, the students had their ESL class in the morning as usual. Today's topic was food. The ESL teacher prepared various kinds of foods for the students and they sampled all of them. They were more than 20 kinds, such as pepper olive, broccoli, peanuts, cheese, tortilla, watermelon, and brownies.

Galileo Academy Elementary School

After lunch, the students visited Galileo Academy Elementary School in Victorville today. They joined the 6th grade's class. First, they performed Japanese way of cheering, "3-3-7 rhythm." Then, they taught boys and girls "origami," and they made paper cranes with them. Some students who were good at origami made many kinds, such as balloon, airplane, and basket. They also played with kids using paper balloons.

Lastly, some of the boy students introduced Fukui Prefecture to kids. They explained the attractiveness of Fukui, such as Dinosaur Museum, cherry blossoms along Asuwa River, and rich nature. Rich nature included snowfall in Okuetsu and delicious cuisine along the coast. They enjoyed talking with the kids.

< From Students' Diary >

I went shopping at Victorville. It has a big shopping mall. I could buy a lot of clothes and cosmetics. I noticed that American things are bigger and cheaper than Japanese things. (Sonomi Nakano, Usui SHS)

I and Sonomi made Japanese food for my host family and Sonomi's host family. We made "Okonomiyaki," Japanese tea, and Japanese pasta. Everybody said to us, "so good!" We were so glad to hear. (Ryuki Onaga, Hokuriku SHS)

I was invited to a birthday party. I enjoyed doing ping pong, dancing, and so on. In Japan, we don't have such a big birthday party, so I experienced a precious time. (Kana Kubota, Fujishima SHS)
